Cherry Class Newsletter

A lovely start to the term! The term started with our wonderful spring concert. I was so proud of Cherries performance, and it has got us very excited for our music festival on Monday 18th March.

Last week, we started a very exciting art project. We are learning about Kenojuak Ashevak and this week the children had a go at re-creating one of her famous animal pieces focusing on lines and shading. This week we are going to extend our learning on Ashevak and re-create another piece using watercolours.

This week is book week! We have a lot of exciting activities on for the children to engage with. You are invited in on Tuesday at 2:45 to share a book of your choice with a small group of children. This is always a lovely event and one the children remember all the way through their school years. On Wednesday, the children will be having a day based on the book 'My Grandpa's Amazing Inventions' by Richard Johnson. We will be doing some guided reading based on this book, drawing club and DT. If possible, please may your child bring in a small recyclable cardboard box or an egg box (for example, tissue boxes, butter boxes). On Friday, the children are invited to dress up as a book character! I look forward to seeing the costumes!

Have a lovely week!
