Dear Parents and Carers,

AR Reader

I shared the children's AR Reader levels with them last week. When I send out the homework books on Wednesday, you will see that I have noted their AR Reader levels written on the inside of the book cover.

Your child can log in at home also using the QR code that a parent kindly sent on WhatsApp.

Their login is:

Username : first letter of your first name. surname

Example GSmith (No full stop needed.)

Password: 123

AR Book Finder <https://www.arbookfind.co.uk/>

This website can be used to enter books you have at home to see what level they are.

When you search for a book, it will tell you whether there is a quiz available or not (unfortunately not all books are currently on the system).

When you have located the book and clicked on it, it will give you more information as the picture below shows:
