

Elm Class Newsletter

Date: 14th November 2025

Headlines:

- Amazing response to homework - well done Elm Class. We had nearly every homework book and reading log back!
- Wow - amazing help from x10 parent/ grandparent helpers with our Christmas sewing. The children are creating decorations that we think they will always treasure.

- We would love to create a 'Reading Advent'. If possible, please could your child bring in a wrapped, short picture book that can be shared with the whole class. We will then unwrap one or two every day in December. Please note, this is not compulsory - we just thought it would be a lovely idea!

The Teacher Award Winners this week are:

Lorenzo for his enthusiasm to learning.

Mali for her superb independent learning.

Star of the Week: Esther

This week's learning...

Maths: Multiplication and Division

Multiplying and dividing 2 digits by 1 digit and multiplying by 3, 30 and 300.

English: Smok the Dragon

The children have learnt to write similes and use direct speech punctuation.

P.S.H.E: This week is anti-bullying week. The theme this year is 'Power for Good' which aims to empower individuals to take positive action against bullying and promote inclusion.

Sewing: We would be VERY grateful for as many adult (parent, grandparent...) helpers on the following dates to help the children sew their Christmas decorations:

Thursday 6th November 1:45 - 3pm

Thursday 13th November 1:45 - 3pm

Thursday 20th November 1:45 - 3pm

Possibly: Thursday 6th November 1:45 - 3pm
