

Elm Class Newsletter

Date: 27th November 2025

Headlines:

- Please remember reading books and logs must come to school everyday - a number of children are forgetting to bring in their reading books and logs. We have a wonderful team of parent volunteer readers this year but it is tricky when children do not have their book in school ready to read. Thank you for your support with this.

- Thank you to everyone for their Reading Advent books. We cannot wait to open and read the first book on Monday!

The Teacher Award Winners this week are:

Hattie Harding for fabulous focus and for sharing her learning wonderfully.

Rowan her superb singing and consistent determination to always do her best.

Star of the Week:

Ryan

Weekly Learning Highlights...

Maths: Multiplication and Division

Linking multiplying and dividing 4 and 8 times table facts and using knowledge to problem solve.

English: Smok the Dragon

Children have spent the week writing their innovated stories. We hope you enjoyed listening to your child's story plan.

Christmas in November: Christmas preparation always starts in November in primary schools! This week the children have made decorations for the church. Please do pop into St. Johns to see find your child's Spanish inspired decoration!

Look out for your child's beautifully stitched felt Christmas decoration in their PACT folder- they have all done such a superb job! We hope they'll be treasured for many, many years to come.
