

Elm Class Newsletter

Date: 12th December 2025

Headlines:

- What a superb performance! We just want to say a huge congratulations to all of the children in Elm Class for their fabulous singing and acting in our Christmas production.
- KS2 enjoyed their Christmas lunch on Thursday. The Christmas tunes were ringing out, crackers were pulled and huge slabs of chocolate cake were demolished!
- We've decorated our classroom!

The Teacher Award Winners this week are:

Millie and Leo for their superstar performances in our Christmas production.
Wow!

Star of the Week:

Arthur Exton

Weekly Learning Highlights...

Spelling: We have revised our termly tricky words. ALL support at home to help the children learn to spell the below words is very welcome. There will be a test on these words next week.

Statutory words to learn	bicycle often busy	business actually occasionally	believe appear group	continue arrive women	couldn't wouldn't shouldn't	could've would've should've
--------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------------------	----------------------------	-----------------------------	-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Times Tables: Children continue to practise learning their x2, x3, x4, x5, x10 times tables using TTRS and by daily step counting (recalling and chanting the number facts).

Homework Expectations:

- Submitted every Wednesday.
- Completed in neat handwriting (with a growing number of joined letters).
- Reading logs should have x3 entries per week.

P.E. days this term are:

Wednesday and Friday.

Mike's Meadow:

Tuesday (please ensure your child has wellies under the archway).

Phonic Focus:

ti makes a 'sh' sound

e.g.
