

Cherry Class Newsletter

Date: 30th January 2025

We have had a super busy week in Cherry this week. We have really enjoyed our Poles Apart story this week and have consolidated our learning from Science and Geography through the text this week. We have been focussing on imperative verbs and the children have loved instructing me on how to make a cheese sandwich, playing Simon Says, completing an obstacle course and highlighting written instructions to get used to using them. We will continue this next week and the children will write their own instructions to help the Pilchard-Brown family get home. In Maths, we have done addition and subtraction and have really enjoyed consolidating our learning from terms one and two. We have also been learning about capacity and using words such as full, empty, nearly full and nearly empty. The children have loved this so far and we will continue this next week too. The children have all impressed me with their Phonics skills as we have done our baseline Phonic Screening Check. Please do not worry about this. I will be sharing more information with you as we draw closer to this in June and I will ensure that you have all the resources needed to support your child with this at home. We did not go to the meadow this week because we had a lady called Claire come in and tell us all about her trip to Antarctica. The children loved hearing her fabulous stories and seeing the amazing photos of the animals that she had met.

Have a wonderful and restful weekend,

Olivia, Natalie, Jemma, Karen and Mel
