

Hazel Class Newsletter

Date: Monday July 20th,

What a lovely last full school week we had together last week. The children were busy publishing their stories on Chromebooks. As well as the imaginative stories they were writing, they were great at developing their typing skills.

The children had fun eating wild and wonderful things as part of our “I’m a celebrity, get me out of here” bush tucker trials. They ate pig’s eyeballs (peeled grapes,) maggots (rice pudding) and slimy eels (mango slices.)

On the food theme, as a farewell activity, Sarah Finch treated the children to a fondue tasting session. Lucky children.

What a wonderful year we have shared together. I will truly miss each and every one of you. Wishing you all the very best in Maple Class. Keep shining brightly, just like the truly brilliant stars you are! I’m so proud of each of you, and I know you’ll continue to do amazing things.

Sarah

Learning last week

Writing: Publishing
Character Flaw
Stories on

Dates

Tuesday: Leaver’s assembly in school